

“Reading and writing changed my and my children’s life. I could finally help them with their homework. Before, I never thought this was important. Now I support them as much as I can. I realized how important it is that my children go and finish school. I am very proud of myself and my family! ”
Aminata de Ousséni, Mother – CBFL class no 22 in 2014

